

Our Mission

The d'Art Center connects the community and artists to create an appreciation for visual art by providing a unique opportunity to watch, create, learn, collect, and enjoy work from diverse artists in an interactive environment.

About d'Art Center

Our building is comprised of three galleries, resident artist studios, and multiple activity rooms. The d'Art Center's Main Gallery and Vault are rotated monthly with new and nationally curated exhibitions, while our Artist Wing displays our frequently updated community artists' work. There is always something new to admire during your visit to d'Art Center.

- d'Art is always free and open to the public.
- d'Art has more than 30 in-house artists with hundreds of works of art on display & for sale.
- d'Art Center hosts 9 National Exhibitions which generate over 4,000 submissions annually.
- d'Art offers classes & workshops in a variety of mediums and skill levels.
- d'Art offers 6 weeks of accessible and affordable summer camp to over 200 kids annually.
- d'Art Center is lead by four professional staff members and an active board of directors.
